The Lamp 1962

Parkview Methodist School of Nursing
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

LET YOUR LIGHT SO SHINE

In the misty haze of morning, we again head toward our world,
As the early morning sun lights on the grass dew-pearled.
A piercing cry is heard; a tiny babe is born.
A halo descends from heaven and above the head adorns.

The many days behind us, show toil, grief, and strife,
And the time consuming battle to maintain another life.
As we soothe a fevered brow or a family filled with care,
We know that all is not in vain--the light of God is there.

The darkness bleak, surrounds us, as we gaze from side to side;
It is like a roaring ocean with a never ending tide.
But in the distant spaces, a light comes shining through;
It is the light of knowledge and the light of service, too.

We accept the challenge, and with confidence set out,
To minister to humanity and to serve without a doubt.
The glory of our nursing does not in shadows lurk.
... Let your light so shine, that all may see your work!

by Barbara Proxmire, S.N.

DEDICATION

The glowing lights of leadership, knowledge, and understanding radiate from afar as we approach her. By the illumination of her light, it has been possible for us to progress along the path of life and many steps closer to our nursing goals. With sincerity and extreme gratitude, we dedicate "The Lamp of 1962" to one who has allowed her light to shine, MRS. MARILYN RICCI.

THE SENIORS' WILL

I, Judy Andres, being of reasonably sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get yelled at by my superiors without half trying, to my little sis, Sheri Hite; although I doubt if she has this problem.

I, Connie Andrews, being of sound mind and body, hereby will my ability to stay out late every night of the week and still wait until my senior year to get a diamond, to Penny Law.

I, Mrs. Andry, will my ability to go to Logansport for three months and come back with a handsome souvenir, a husband, to Jane Embree.

I, Sharon Battershell (Shatterbell), being of limber body and a similar mind, will my dancing abilities, notoriously known as "bouncy," to an already twisting Nancy Satterfield. May she never live in peace until she trades that obnoxious name for a short one.

I, Sandra Benoit, alias Sunny, being of sound and secure mind, will to Judy Amaden the uniform that she so kindly designed for me.

I, Janet Blinn, being of sound mind and aching body, hereby will the ability not to attempt skin grafts with windshield glass while enroute to Logansport, to Nola Cooper. It isn't the proper procedure!

I, Kay Bosler, being of short body and false teeth, hereby will my grey hair to Hilke Stoeckelmann, so she can be the first all grey headed nurse to graduate from Parkview.

I, Bunny Brown, will my old Granny night gown to Roberta Yoder in hopes it will keep her toes warm as it has mine.

I, Donna Butler, being of willful hands and running feet, hereby will to Carolyn Stealy, my ability to "knock yourself out" in trying to tighten a draw sheet.

I, Barbara Carey, will to Roberta Lobdell my homemade first aid kit to remind her to close match boxes before lighting a match and that roasting hot marshmallows will burn, and in spite of the misfortune won't miss a day of work even in surgery.

I, Mary Emma Chapman, being quite an "operator," so my classmates say, do hereby will to Miss Carol LaHurreau her own private telephone in order to receive all her phone calls without being timed by her loving classmates.

I, Betty Coley, being of sound mind???, do hereby leave my ability for developing the shoe string method for holding up white hose when the proper equipment is not available, to Anita Schindler.

I, Judith Comer, being of sound mind and rough hands, will to Mary Ann Andreas, my collection of hand creams and lotions so her hands will always look beautiful.

I, Julia Copsey, will to Debbie Luce, my ability to hook a man. I keep him by remote control 800 miles away.

I, Linda Crull, being of stable legs and varicose veins, hereby will Sandy Wick one of my greatest abilities, that being, the ability to drop one's contact lens down the incinerator.

I, Bev Cunningham, will to Judy Smith this popcorn popper. This is very valuable as it has been passed down through 3 generations here at Parkview and has never been washed! Please handle carefully.

I, Marilyn Cunningham, will my old worn, but comfortable houseslippers to my "little sis," Mary Jane Burkholder, to carry her through her Senior year dorm life, hoping they will be as much appreciated as the ones willed to me last year?!

I, Jean Davis, will to Annette DeWert, the ability to go with two guys with the same name at the same time in the same town and remain the same.

I, Diane DeMuth, being of sound mind and body, do will to my "little sis," Stevie Cromwell, the ability to win a Twist Contest with one guy while being engaged to another.

I, Karen Evard, will to Carol Van Camp, my ability to have an unusual birthday party while at Logansport.

I, Carole Fiser, being of sound mind, do will to Loretta Zigler, my "little sis," the ability to talk myself out of trouble when I wasn't guilty and didn't even know what I was being blamed for while on affiliation, along with having lots of fun at Logansport.

I, Peg Geiser, would willingly will my will to Linda DePoy, but my will is not worth willing, so I will not will my will.

I, Mary Jane Geist, do will and bequeath my ability to have more fun, get into more mischief and not get caught to Sandy Reed.

I, Loretta Gruver, will to Virginia Wilt my ability to "talk."

I, Mary Kay Hall, being of Marcia and Howard Hall, do hereby bequeath and will to Judy Derge the ability to make the Peds final due to a congenital anomaly-bilateral lisp and the ability to determine the weather before the weatherman—due to abnormal height. Also to Kathy Lee, my adopted little sis, I will my fuchsia pajamas with the hopes that her classmates will let her wear them in peace!

I, Mary Ellen Keith, being a Senior, will to Joan Hartman, all my abilities.

I, Judy Knisely, being an avid sun lover, will to Gwen Goller, my chaise lounge on the sundeck.

I, Karen Koons, will to Karen Langsdon, my ability to do 10 L.P.'s in 13 weeks.

I, Joyce Larrison, will to Pat Weida, the ability to do everything the hard way and still remain in training.

I, Pati Lavens, being of sound mind and wit, do will to Charlotte Froelich, my ability to understand and thoroughly enjoy every joke I am told. Also I wish to leave with her my personal scrapbook of jokes to use for those who never seem to understand a good joke.

I, Doris Lee, being in an awful shape at this time, do hereby will to my "little sis," Brenda Wagoner, my ability to tear myself from my loved ones at home, including Hilda my cow, and to go through training even though I wanted to be a female agriculturist.

I, Susie Lotz, being of questionable sound mind and exhibiting flabby legs, will to my "little sis," Janet Weaver and Marilyn Morton, their own personal passes for rides between wards at Logansport, per ambulance, of course!!

I, Alice Mathew, being of blond hair and blue eyes hereby will to Jeanne Klein my good hours, and hope you will keep the road home busy.

I, Mary Ellen Maxwell, being of questionable mind, infirm body, and little ability, do will to my little sis, Carol Burch, my road map because no one in Fort Wayne knows where Alisco is either and to Mary Jane Burkholder, the ability to have a date before every test at Logansport and still pass.

I, Mary Louise "Louse" Minor, being of sound mind and I think sound physical health do hereby will to each of my "little sis's," Barb Proxmire and Margaret Boerger, an infected tonsil which is guaranteed to get them an extra two weeks vacation.

I, Carolyn Myers, will to my "little sis," Carol Hahn, my ability to leave my room key on my lunch tray and not miss it until I get back to my locked room.

I, Susan Rathburn, do hereby will and bequeath to Mary Jane Burkholder my ability to tell the same joke to someone, (like Mary Kay Hall) and have them laugh just as hard the twelfth time as they did the first.

I, Emmalou Riggs, being of sound mind, and tired feet, will my first pair of nurses shoes to Nancy Cline, in hopes that they do her feet more good than they have done mine.

I, Karen Runkle, being of questionable sound mind and beraggled physical condition will to Elaine Helvie my treasured insect infested houseslippers along with a can of Raid in hopes that she takes good care of them as I did.

I, Linda Schamerloh, being of sound mind and fallen arches, will to Judy Brown and Sue Drew my remaining domestic ability, being these few unfinished pieces of knitting and one lone needle. Here is hoping you can get the point and are able to tie the final knot.

I, Kathy Schultz, being of questionable mental status since Logansport, do will to Vickie Pinney, my faithful, old, and much used laundry bag. Hoping she can use it as I did to carry my dirty laundry home and have mother faithfully wash it without complaining.

I, Phyllis Shepherd, will to Nancy Launterberg, a roll of 7 inch tape to patch her uniforms with when she becomes a senior.

I, Jeanne Shindeldecker, will to my "little sis," Mary Ann Britenbucher, my liking for Logansport in hopes it will help her over the hump!

I, Carolyn Shrock, will my ability to make the instructors use magnifying glasses to read my papers to Joanie Hartman.

I, Yvonne Smith, will the ability to "catch" a baby, and still (through such an experience) remain calm (HA) to Joy Smith.

I, Becky Turner, being of insane mind, crumpled body, will to my "little sis," my ability to get pinned with a safety pin—seeing as how she has a big enough imagination to do so. I also will this patient made key chain to her for extensive use at Logansport. Good luck, Bobbie Stoops.

I, Carol Sue Updike, will my ability in my surgical experience to put size 6½ gloves on Dr. Sullivan and contaminate him in the process to Nancy Rager.

I, Janet Vondran, will my old red clodhoppers that lasted my 3 years of training to Beth Ramsey. Happy clodhopping!

I, Jane Wetzler, will to Penny Law an extra annex window, close to the ground so that she will not have any trouble getting in after hours.

I, Bonnie Wilt, will my faithful coffee cup to Pati Meyers. May it help her to stay up late at night, to study???

I, Eunice Woods, will the ability to open 100 opaque sponges on the back table per Dr. McEachren's order to Carol Fry.

I, Sharon Sprunger, doubting my sanity after my Logansport experience will to my "little sis," Anita Schindler, my talent of telling jokes that don't make people laugh, and the ability to get married and graduate with your original class.

I, Rita Mayhall, being of fairly sound mind will to my "cohort in crime," Judy Brown a windshield wiper of her own that she can break whenever she wants and a pair of red suspenders to hold up her baggy socks.

I, Sue Geyer, do hereby will my trusty tool kit to Carol Sue Hahn, to make quick work of those dented fenders and other incidental accidents which may occur while your car is parked on Randalia Drive better known as "Daredevil Drive."

PROPHECY

This summer I was traveling in the South on my vacation and while browsing at a newsstand a headline caught my eye. It was a Fort Wayne paper dated July 7, 1972. The headline read—"PARKVIEW HOSPITAL STAFF REORGANIZED"!

Reading through the article many familiar names caught my eye:

BEVERLY CUNNINGHAM and JUDY ANDRES have now taken over the positions of Supervisor and Floor Manager of 4th floor, respectively.

JOYCE LARRISON is the new head of the Long Term Care Unit succeeding Miss Heymann who is now married.

The new nurse in charge of Health Service is LOUISE MINOR. The school—PMSN, has three new instructors, MARILYN CUNNINGHAM, CAROLE FISER, and CAROL UPDIKE.

Notation is made that MARY KAY HALL has left her position in Surgery to become scrub nurse for Dr. Mastangelo. (Picture that!)

JUDY COMER is now devoting her full time to research for a new cancer cure. Glancing down the page, I notice another heading: PARKVIEW GRADUATE ACHIEVES POSITION WITH ASTRONAUT CREWS.

SUSIE RATHBURN is now at Cape Canaveral caring for the astronauts in their pre-flight preparation.

"My goodness," I thought, turning the page. The next column that caught my eye was the CHURCH NEWS.

EUNICE WOODS and LORETTA GRUVER have established a new clinic in the Belgian-Congo.

Oh, it says here that BARB CAREY is traveling in the Amazon with her husband who is a minister. PHYLLIS SHEPHERD is now in Alaska with her husband who is also a minister.

Across the page I noticed an ad which revealed that DIANE DeMUTH has added a side line to her nursing career. She is now a part-time twist instructor.

On the same page is an ad for Pan American Airlines with a picture of a charming nurse stewardess, KAREN EVARD.

Further back in the paper under VITAL STATISTICS I saw some familiar names. BECKY TURNER is marrying a prominent local doctor.

Also I see JANET BLINN just gave birth to her eighth son. Here's another ad with a familiar name. DONNA BUTLER has established a business producing "Butler's Better Bed Pans—Made With The Patient In Mind."

Oh, here's an interesting note on the SOCIETY PAGE. RITA MAYHALL, prominent New York socialite, recently entertained the Mayor and his wife in her Madison Avenue penthouse. Also here's a picture of a lovely bride, JEANNE SHINDELDECKER. She has just wed the U.S. Ambassador to Monaco.

On the back of this section I see an article on Long-cliff State Hospital. I see where SUSIE LOTZ is now making runs with the ambulance on all emergency cases. Also listed among the employees there are MARY ELLEN MAXWELL and RITA ANDRY.

Lower on the page I see the announcement of a new book about to be published. It is entitled "How to be Socially Successful" or "My Happy Love Life" by MARY CHAPMAN.

Say here's an interesting ad—Lose weight sanely and safely at LINDA SCHAMERLOH'S Slimming Salon.

As I picked up the second section, I see that a Parkview graduate has found her calling in Hollywood. JUDY KNISELY is the new MGM Studio nurse.

It seems that others from the "Class of 62" are doing some traveling. JULIA COPSEY has left Hartford City and is traveling West looking for employment and adventure.

Seems KAREN RUNKLE has made a career of traveling as crew nurse on the ship Queen Elizabeth.

Seeing an ad for Ringling Brothers reminded me that KAY BOSLER is also traveling. Who would have guessed that she would become a circus nurse.

As I am turning the pages, several other names catch my eye. The former SHARON BATTERSHELL and her husband, Senator Bluewater, have just returned from a successful campaign tour and are now visiting with friends and relatives.

BETTY COLEY is retired to a quiet home life in Florida with her husband and five children. CONNIE ANDREWS and her husband are now raising thoroughbreds in Kentucky.

Here's an ad announcing the opening of a Charm School for Nurses by JANE WETZLER, KATHY SCHULTZ, and BONNIE WILT.

Oh my goodness! YVONNE SMITH is doing special duty nursing at the White House. I must say PATTI LAVENS' job sounds just as interesting. She's working in the dispensary at Tri State College.

Here's an article from Indianapolis. LINDA CRULL has been made supervisor of the Emergency Room at Methodist Hospital.

JANN BROWN is the "mother" of fifty in the Pediatric Department there.

Well, this is a surprise! SUNNY BENOIT is now in charge of the men's Geriatric ward at Richmond State Hospital. Here's an ad from the Sweet Rest Mortuary owned by MARY ELLEN KEITH and her husband.

The head of State School Rehabilitation Center, Bob Brown, has a new assistant, DORIS LEE. They also have a new infirmary at State School headed by MARY JANE GEIST.

On the SPORTS PAGE I see KAREN KOONS is now with the National Boxing Association. She is employed as training camp nurse.

Also here I see JEAN DAVIS and her husband, who is a professional basketball player, are traveling around the world. He is a former Purdue star.

I see on the next page that EMMALOU RIGGS has also married a Purdue graduate. He is a professor on the PU campus.

Can it be? PEG GEISER is now supervisor of the Neuro-Surgical ward at Cook County Hospital in Chicago.

Here's a bit of interesting information. CAROLYN MYERS and CAROLYN SHROCK are now living on an Indian Reservation teaching the Indians First Aid and better ways of living.

Also doing good will for others is JANET VONDRAN. She is working with the Red Cross in Uruguay.

I have now reached the CLASSIFIED ADS. Here I see an announcement of the opening of a new clinic in Berne, Indiana, headed by SHARON SPRUNGER.

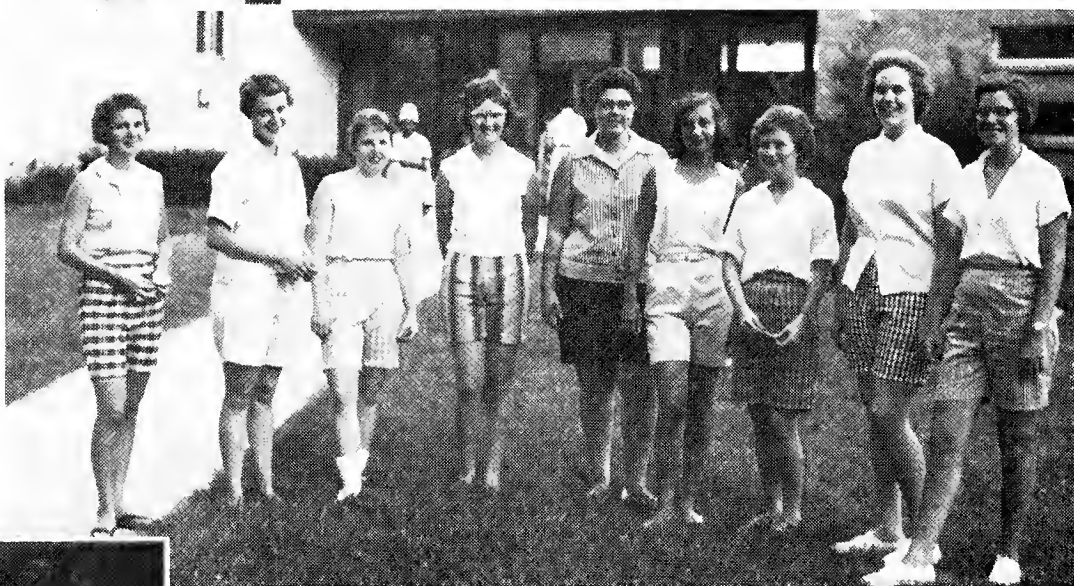

Well isn't this interesting. On the last page I see that ALICE MATHEW is enlarging her day nursery and SUSIE GEYER is giving her pointers on child care.

My goodness, it sounds like those girls have really gone places! That class of 1962 was quite a class!
